

A Baisa's Adventures

Mallyka Baisa's roots lie in Dundlod, Shekhawati which keep calling her back to do something for the local community. A soft heart for the homeland has inspired her to establish "A Baisa's Adventures" which promises to offer curated experiences highlighting the culture of the region thereby bringing in sustainable development for her fraternity. The essence of all these adventurous journeys is to explore the rugged landscape on the spirited indigenous Marwari horses, building a special bond with them while exploring and marvelling at the unique art and craft of Shekhawati. Hear her narrate stories about the frescoes of Shekhawati, local folklores, Discover the authentic taste of the local food; Experience the thrill of cycling around the countryside and enjoying camel cart rides. Step back in time to engage, immerse and evolve while experiencing the rural life in Rajasthan!

A Baisa means the daughters of the Royal Rajput families

MARWARI MARE

Mallyka Singh Dundlod was born on 12th Nov 1979 into the erstwhile noble family of the Shekhawati clan.

Her love and passion for horses began as a child and as she began accompanying her father during horse safaris since 2015, it made her realise her love for interacting with people and adventure. Due to her strong inclination towards Marwari horses and interacting with local people all over Rajasthan, she found her true calling which has taken her back to her roots & now she wants to share her passion with not only riders but also non riders across the globe.

Experience an adventure in the Rural Countryside

Explore pathways weaving through native Dhani's or hamlets of the countryside; you will be exposed to the real rural India while you ride a spirited Marwari horse as you venture off the beaten track with Mallyka Baisa connecting with the local culture and people, whilst forging a genuine understanding of the unique Marwari breed of horses.

You will also get a chance to meet local artisans in the village...Everyday you will engage in experiences connected to culture, heritage, education and local art.

Traditional ways of life are strong in Rajasthan, and you will be exposed to a living piece of history as you see camels and bullock carts, nomadic goat herders, and subsistence farmers go about their daily lives. Watch in awe as ladies balance enormous loads on their heads and work in the fields in shimmering bright saris. This journey will unveil the real life patterns and vibrance of Rajasthan. Colourful, cultural and vibrant, Rajasthan's heady alchemy will awaken all of your senses. Discover towering forts, brightly painted haveli's, and connecting yourself with another time, in this romantic environment.

THE MARWARI TODAY. A BRIGHTER FUTURE.

Marwaris today excel at endurance due to their stamina and speed, competing nationally in endurance races.

As a child of the desert, they are the ideal partner to journey with through their sandy homeland of Rajasthan on a long, adventurous trail safari.

Dressage is another discipline where the Marwari reigns supreme. Dressage collects the Marwari beautifully and they naturally perform with splendour at the practice. Their speed and accuracy means they are excellent Tent Peggers and compete in this historical and breath-taking cavalry sport. Under Indian law, Marwari's are currently banned from being exported, making this ride with these unique animals a once in a lifetime experience.

A DIVINE WAR HORSE OF THE DESERT

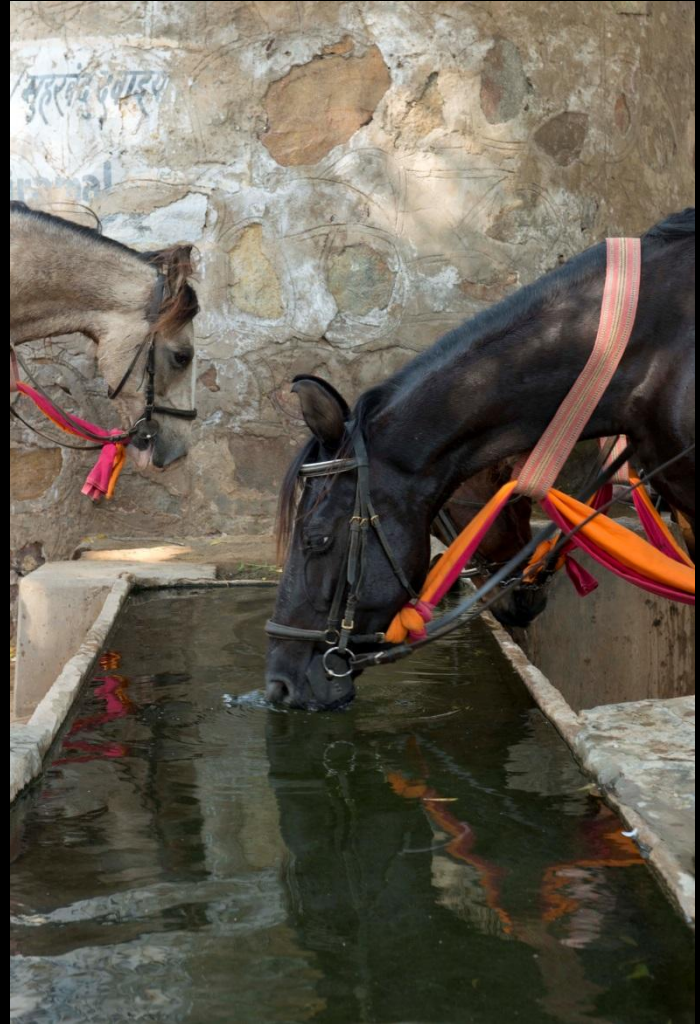

HISTORICALLY SIGNIFICANT TO THE ANCIENT RULERS OF RAJASTHAN, THE MARWARI WAS ONCE THE PRIZED FIERY WAR HORSE OF THE RAJPUT'S. KNOWN THROUGHOUT THE LANDS FOR THEIR BRAVERY, INTELLIGENCE AND STAMINA, MARWARI'S ARE IMBUED WITH LOCAL MYTH AND LEGEND. THE RAJPUT'S ARE THE WARRIORS OF RAJASTHAN. WHEN THEY WERE NOT IN BATTLE BETWEEN THEMSELVES, THEY WERE IN ALMOST CONSTANT COMBAT WITH THE MUGHALS, AND NEEDED AN EQUINE PARTNER TO MATCH THEIR BRAVERY AND COURAGE TO CHARGE THEM INTO BATTLE. THE RAJPUTS HONED THE MARWARI INTO A FEARLESS, SPIRITED CAVALRY HORSE WHO COULD SUSTAIN HOURS UNDER THE SADDLE IN THE DESOLATE DESERT ENVIRONMENT.

THEIR CURLED EARS GIVE MARWARI'S SUPERIOR HEARING, ABLE TO ALERT THEIR RIDER TO DANGER. RAJASTHANI MYTHOLOGY IS FILLED WITH TALES, BALLADS AND POEMS OF THESE BRAVE STEEDS AND THEIR SPIRITED BEAUTY. THE MOST FAMOUS OF ALL IS THE FEARLESS CHETAK, THE WAR HORSE OF RAJPUT WARRIOR, MAHARANA PRATAP. IN THE BLOODY BATTLE OF HALDIGHATI IN 1576 AGAINST THE MUGHAL EMPIRE, CHETAK WHO HIMSELF WAS DISGUISED AS AN ELEPHANT TO CONFUSE THE ENEMY, WAS FATALLY INJURED. BEFORE COLLAPSING, CHETAK CARRIED HIS WARRIOR TO SAFETY, IMMORTALISING HIM IN RAJASTHANI FOLKLORE.
